Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133).
- Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Response to Amendment

This is in response to an amendment file on June 14th, 2004. In the amendment, claims 27-29 have been amended, no claim has been canceled, and claim 30-32 have been added.

Claims 27-32 remain pending in the letter.

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 27-32 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 27-32 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Estakhri et al. (US Patent 6,757,800).

4. As per claim 27 and 30, Katz et al teach computer readable medium/method for distributing digital works comprising instruction for receiving a request from a first computing device at a second computing device t for downloading digital content data, instruction for associating a flag element with the content data, the flag element having memory registers instruction for downloading a portion of the content data to the first computing device and instruction for manipulating the flag element to store at least one demarcation flag in a memory register wherein the memory register corresponds to a memory addressed on an addressable memory indicating the downloaded portion of the content data whereby the downloaded portion of the content data can be determined without accessing data (see column 4 lines 35-65, 9 lines 30-64, 14 lines 3-54, claim 1).

5. As per claim 28 and 31, Katz et al teach computer readable medium/method wherein the downloading step comprises downloading a portion of the content data that will fit into available memory of a device receiving the content data (see column 4 lines 35-65, 9 lines 30-64, 14 lines 3-54, claim 1).

6. As per claim 29 and 32, Katz et al teach m computer readable medium/method further comprising the step of determining the available memory in the device receiving the content data and wherein the manipulating step comprises placing flag elements in memory registers corresponding to memory addresses demarcating a portion of the content data that corresponds to the available memory of the device receiving the content data and comprises downloading a portion of the content data in memory addresses corresponding to the demarcated portion (see column 4 lines 35-65, 9 lines 30-64, 14 lines 3-54, claim 1).

Conclusion

7. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
